

Prompt

Team: Jenna Brose, Jesse Leung

ID12: Ice breaker question generator to help get past small talk during zoom gatherings. We are including a login feature as well.

- select the types of questions you want (e.g., hypothetical scenarios, life experiences, philosophy, etc.)- - get shown questions based on your selections in a list view

User Story

1. As a non-user, I can sign up with an email and password
2. As a logged-out user, I can login using my email and password and see confirmation that I'm logged in.
3. As a user, I can select from 4 different Ice Breaker categories including:
 - i. Philosophical ice-breakers
 - ii. Hypothetical, what-if ice breakers
 - iii. Life experience ice breakers
 - iv. Current events
4. As a user, once within a category, I can select Ice Breaker questions to commit the question to my profile.
5. As a user, I can see all of my selected questions under my profile (and no one else's).
6. As a user, I can add new icebreaker questions to the repository.
7. As a user, I can select the new questions I create and add them to my profile as well.